RUSSIA NEEDS MORE METALS IN CHARACTER

Trotzky Wants Airplanes Constructed to Resist England, Particularly, and Other Aggressive Foes

ATTACKS ENGLAND

All British Activities Show Selfishness and Use of Other Nations' Weapons to Gain Ends, He Adds

(By the Associated Press.)

Moscow, June 19.—An attack on England, hints of Russo-French reproachment, and a plea for "more metal in our national character," marked an address by Leon Trotzky, Soviet war minister, today, before the All-Russian congress of metal workers.

"If an ultimatum is presented to us," he explained, referring to the recent British notes, "let us create a detachment of airplanes. If a coup d' etat occurs in Bulgaria, let us build another detachment of airplanes and if there is a coup d' etat in Persia let us build more planes.

"The iron in our will must be transferred to the iron wings of airplanes; then we can say, looking high above at our squadrons, 'this is the coup d' etat in Persia * * * etc.' If we transform the criminalities of the bourgoise into airplanes, then perhaps we shall be able sometime to bring an end to their criminalities."

England Aids Coup de' Etat.

M. Trotzky said England and Italy had, according to information at hand, assisted in the coup d' etat in Bulgaria and the British had aided in the nationalists overthrow in Persia. Declaring that Russia's losses in the World war were overwhelmingly greater than Britain's, Trotzky said.

"It was for this purpose, perhaps, that Lord Curzon felt strong enough to deliver us his 10-day ultimatum; it was necessary that the blood of the Russian peasants and workers be shed. This account sometime we shall present to the English bourgoise.

"England re[illegible] also true to her traditional policy. In the international [illegible] international policy. In reality hers was a provocative role. When the English proletariat opens the safes of the English diplomacy, the records will, if they are not already destroyed, show the real role of England in the World war.

England True to Form.

"It is the same in regards to the Ruhr * * *. If England had not wished France to do so, there would have been no Ruhr occupation. To bring two peoples into struggle while they rest aside themselves, in order to be able to appropriate the results, is the traditional policy of the English bourgoise."

Russia, by yielding, saved herself from falling into Lord Curzon's trap, Trotzky said, finally forcing the idea into the souls of the British bourgoise that Russia wanted peace.

"We have seen the English souls," he said. "They are good thick heavy leather souls. From such leather are built the skulls of the English Philistines, which one has to beat with a hammer for a long time."

PASSENGER TRAIN WRECK ON D. & H.

Engineer Arnold of Honesdale Is Killed and Fireman McDonald Hurt; Rails Spread

Honesdale, June 19. — Spreading rails, due to heat, was believed to have been the cause of the wrecking of a local passenger train on the Honesdale branch of the Delaware and Hudson railroad at Prompton, three miles west of here today, in which Engineer J. M. Arnold of Honesdale was killed and Fireman James B. McDonald of Carbondale, seriously injured.

The train was derailed in a deep rock cut and the engineer was caught between the locomotive and the jagged rocks, fracturing his skull. The baggage car was derailed but the remainder of the train did not leave the tracks. No passengers or other members of the crew were injured.

Passengers Badly Shaken Up.

Scranton, Pa., June 19.—One man was reported dead and another injured when the engine of a Delaware and Hudson passenger train plunged down a fifty foot embankment near Honesdale, Pa., today. J. M. Arnold, engineer, was buried under the wreckage of the locomotive and is believed to be dead.

J. B. McDonald, fireman of Carbondale, Pa., was injured and taken to the Wayne hospital. The baggage car and two days coaches that made up the rest of the train did not leave the rails. Passengers were badly shaken, but none was injured.

SEND OUT RIOT CALL

Savannah, Ga., June 19.—With 2,000 persons before the county jail, where Walter Lee, negro, charged with criminal attack upon a white woman is confined, and with the number of excited persons increasing every moment, the riot call for the city and county officers was sounded shortly before midnight tonight.

FULLER AND M'GEE SENTENCED TO JAIL

Federal Charges Pending Against Them Will Keep Them in New York for Time

New York, June 19. — Edward M. Fuller and William F. McGee, confessed bucket shop operators, today were sentenced to serve from 15 months to four years in Sing Sing prison for their offense. But United States Attorney Hayward indicated they might be old men before they get a chance to begin serving the sentences which, with time off for good behavior, would amount to 11 months.

Fuller and McGee, jailed by federal court order for contempt in failing to turn over to the receiver in bankruptcy records of their firm, must clear themselves in the eyes of federal authorities, before they can leave Ludlow street jail to start serving their Sing Sing terms, Mr. Hayward declared, and the only way then can purge themselves, he added, is to yield up the records, with their possible evidence leading to a bucket ring, or at least to disclose the workings of the supposed ring and any who its members are.

Mr. Hayward talked with Fuller privately twice before he came up for sentence in the state court, seeking to induce him to give the authorities information they believe he has in his possession.

He refused to talk, however, without a promise of full immunity, which Mr. Hayward refused to give him.

KIDNAPPING CASE COMES TO TRIAL

Mrs. Grinnell Charged With Complicity in Abduction of Verner Alexanderson

Schenectady, June 19. — Mrs. Harriette Grinnell of Alexandria Bay, went on trial in county court here today charged with complicity in the kidnapping of Verner Alexanderson, 6, from his father's home in this city April 30.

Mrs. Wava Fairbanks, also under indictment on similar charges, will be tried at the next term of court, counsel for the women moving for separate trials.

Mrs. Ruth Crandall, believed to be implicated in the case, but not indicted, is being held as a material witness.

Harry Fairbanks, husband of Wava, and Stanley Crandall, husband of Ruth, now are being sought, charged with the actual kidnapping of the boy.

Mrs. E. F. W. Alexanderson, the boy's mother; his sister, Edith, and Ben VanDeusen, a detective, took the stand today, to describe details of the kidnapping.

The principal witness was Verner, who explained how he was led away from his home by a man he said was Fairbanks and how he was found on May 3 with Mrs. Grinnell in an Indian river shack near Theressa, Jefferson county.

The trial will be continued tomorrow.

ALASKAN TRIP OF PRESIDENT BEGINS TODAY

Harding Will Study Problems of Territory at First Hand; Prepares 14 Formal Speeches in States

WILL VISIT PANAMA

15,057 Miles in Journey; 20 Miles Less Than Record Established by Taft's "Swing Around Circuit"

Washington, June 19. — President Harding will leave Washington shortly after noon tomorrow on the longest trip of his administration—a trip that will take him across the continent to Alaska, into Canada, along the Pacific coast, to the Panama Canal zone and to Porto Rico and will keep him away from the capital for at least two months.

The vast territory of Alaska, never before visited by a President, is Mr. Harding's goal. Once before he was even mentioned for the presidency he came under "the spell of the Yukon" and since entering the White House he has had the dream of being able to visit the territory and study at first hand the problems which have arisen there in so great a number.

The itinerary that the President has prepared provides for 14 formal addresses en route to Tacoma, Wash., where he will board a vessel for Alaska, and for five speeches on the Pacific coast on his return from the territory.

15,057 Miles in Trip.

These adresses will not be all that Mr. Harding will make, by any means, for it is expected that many rear platform speeches will be made and that a number of the dinners, luncheons and receptions he plans to attend will bring to him calls for brief discussion of some national policy.

The first prepared address will be made in St. Louis Thursday night.

No definite date for the return to Washington has been set but it is expected to be around August 25. In all on the basis of the itinerary as now made out, he will travel 15,057 [illegible] "swing around the circle" made by President Taft in 1911, the longest trip ever made by a President.

LEVIATHAN GETS UNDER WAY HIDDEN BY HEAVY FOG HAZE

Boston, June 19. — A thick haze rising from the ocean as the result of the great heat hid the Leviathan from the view of those on shore as she weighed anchor in the lower harbor today and steamed off on her trial trip to southern waters. Guests of the shipping board who sailed as passengers were taken down the harbor to the liner in an excursion steamer. Officials stated that "between 500 and 525" guests were aboard.

At the close of the trip, which is to determine how the giant of the seas will behave after her eight million dollar transformation from an army transport into a palace of seagoing comfort and luxury, she will put into New York prepared to go into regular service between that port and Cherbourg and Southampton, starting July 4.

The former German steamship Vaterland was given her final refinishing in the great navy dry dock at South Boston. The last coat of paint dry and the last of the huge store of provisions loaded aboard, she left the dock yesterday and went to the harbor mouth for the night.

PREUS AND JOHNSON WIN.

St. Paul, June 19. — Pluralities of Governor J. A. O. Preus, Republican, and Magnus Johnson, Farmer-Labor nominee for United States senator, as a result of yesterday's primary, continues to increase tonight.

Preus lead over Oscar Hallam, his nearest opponent, had reached 20,000 when 2,348 of the state's 2,520 precincts had reported.

Johnson continued to gain over L. A. Fritsche, and in 2,326 precincts Johnson had 42,421 votes as compared to Fritsche's 30,950.

On the Democratic ballot, State Senator James A. Carley had 6,300 votes in 2,258 precincts as against Carey's 2,135.

$150,000 HOSPITAL GIFT

New York, June 19. — A gift of $150,000 to be distributed among 15 hospitals in the United States and Canada to promote the use of insulin in the treatment of diabetes was announced tonight by John D. Rockefeller, Jr. The hospitals are in all sections of the country.

The purpose of the gifts, Mr. Rockefeller said, would be to increase the number of the ward patients who could be treated with insulin and to teach physicians in general practice the proper methods of employing insulin in the treatment of diabet's.

SEVERE EARTH TREMORS

Washington, June 19.—Earth tremors were recorded from 5:52 p. m. to 6:30 p. m. today on the Georgetown university seismograph, the intensity reaching a maximum between 6:11 and 6:14. The center of disturbance, according to Father Tondorf, in charge of the university observatory, appeared to be in Central or South America. He said the tremors were "rather severe."

SHERMAN TO APPEAL FROM COURT RULING

Says Decision Refusing Access to Ward Messages Will Not Effect Investigation

Albany, June 19.—Attorney General Carl Sherman will appeal from the decision of the appellate division, third department, denying him access to certain telegrams, cablegrams and other messages which he maintains have a bearing upon the so-called Ward-Peters murder case, it was announced tonight.

"This decision, in my opinion," Mr. Sherman said, "will have no effect on grand jury investigations of the case which will open in Westchester county next Monday. However, I will take an appeal in order to settle the questions involved."

The court, in an opinion handed down by Justice Henry T. Kellogg today and in which the other members concurred, referred the order of Supreme Court Justice Ellis J. Staley, directing the production of telegrams and cablegrams exchanged between members of the Ward family just prior to the death of Peters.

Justice Kellogg's opinion not only questioning the manner in which the attorney general conducted the investigation under powers of the "peace and safety act," but declares that the legislature never intended" to provide for criminal investigation against a particular individual in which that individual would be stripped of all the safeguards and privileges otherwise accorded him."

The court took the position also, that the attorney general was conducting a general investigation into the private life of Ward, which he had no right to do in open and public hearings, more particularly so in view of the fact that the investigation was conducted for the sole purpose of obtaining proof that "the individual Ward killed the individual Peters with malice aforethought."

MRS. SCHNEIDER ON WITNESS STAND

Widow of Bronx Contractor Says Her Life Was Happy Until Mrs. Buzzy Took Husband

New York, June 19.—Mrs. Minnie Schneider, widow of Frederick Schneider, Bronx contractor, who was shot to death last February, took the stand today for the prosecution shortly after the opening of the trial of Mrs. Ana Buzzy, indicted for first degree murder, in the Bronx supreme court.

Mrs. Schneider testified that her married life had been happy until Mrs. Buzzy took her husband away from her. The witness sobbed as she told how Schneider, after their separation in 1914, had given her $25 a week and paid the rent of her apartment. Since his death, she said, she had no income and had been forced to live with friends.

District Attorney Glennon declared that the state would prove that Mrs. Buzzy had lived with Schneider for several years, up to the night he was found shot in his automobile. He asserted that a short time before the killing, Mrs. Buzzy had borrowed a pistol from her brother-in-law, William Turk, and that this pistol was the one found beside Schneider's body.

James F. Donnoly, counsel for Mrs. Buzzy, declared he would prove that another person shot the contractor.

AFFIRMS SCHOONER SEIZURE

New York, June 19.—Judge Charles M. Hough of the United States circuit court of appeals, today affirmed the condemnation and forfeiture of the British schooner, Henry L. Marshall, the first rum runner seized by the coast guard outside the three mile limit.

Affirming the order of Federal Judge John R. Hazel, Judge Hough held that "there was an unloading without permit and a failure to produce a manifest when demanded within four leagues of the coast," and that there also was "a failure to report arrival in putting into a small harbor on the Long Island coast or to make a report of the distilled spirits on board."

MUST KEEP BONDED LIQUORS.

New Orleans, June 19.— Federal prohibition enforcement officers who destroy imported or bottled in bond liquors in raids face prosecution on charges of destruction of government property, United States District Attorney Lewis H. Burns declared here tonight. He explained that all liquors suitable for medicinal or scientific purposes should be confiscated and destroyed until so ordered by the court. The government, he added, sells liquor to druggists, physicians and laboratories, after it has been tested and its destruction means a loss of revenue.

REMOVE INVENTOR'S CLAIMS.

Washington, June 19.—The declaration of James V. Martin, airplane inventor, who asked $51,510,000 damages against the National Aeronautic association, the Curtiss Airplane and Motor corporation, and others, were ordered stricken from the record today by the District of Columbia supreme court. The court explained, however, that Martin would be permitted to file a new declaration in accordance with the ruling.

HOLD CASHIER FOR SHORTAGE.

(By the Associated Press.)

Wichita, Kan., June 19.—Philip A. Drumm, cashier of the American State Bank of Wichita, one of the largest banks in Kansas, was arrested and released on bond of $15,000 this afternoon on a charge of misappropriating the funds of the institution. The shortage of nearly $1,500,000 was found in his accounts last night.

LONG ISLAND BOOTLEGGERS' RENDEZVOUS

POLICE GET FOUR

Much Liquor Obtained in Battle Between Rival Outlaws When Officers Act as Armed Mediators

(By the Associated Press)

New York, June 19. — Federal prohibition enforcement authorities, electrified by two of the wildest bootlegging stories that have yet reached their ears, tonight began planning a campaign to mop up Long Island which, it was disclosed, has been adopted as the newest scene of operations of rum runners plying to and from the off shore rum fleet.

The wildest of the stories, almost incredible to the ears of the authorities, although vouchsafed for by Sheriff Amza Biggs of Suffolk county, involved a pitched battle between eight deputy sheriffs and some 50 or 60 rum runners and New York gunmen, in which the deputies finally were driven to cover, while armed patrols conveyed a fleet of trucks with nearly 600 cases of liquor to New York. This encounter took place at Greenport.

The other story, vouchsafed for by the police, was the story of a battle at Baldwin between two contending factions of bootleggers for possession of 1,000 sacks of bottled whiskey from the rum fleet, in which the police, acting as armed mediators, captured the liquor and four men.

Runners Overrun Island.

Sheriff Biggs told the Associated Press tonight that Long Island, particularly the tip of it, was literally overrun with bootleggers and rum runners. The business has increased amazingly since the repeal of the Mullan-Gage state prohibition enforcement law, he said. He pointed out that he was powerless to get search warrants without making a trip to New York, where the nearest United States commissioners are located, and said he was having a hard time keeping anything like a semblance of law enforcement in his territory.

Sheriff Biggs said that rum ships had lain off Montauk Point almost continuously for the past five months, but that the number had increased and their activities multiplied manifold in the last few weeks.

That the rum runners did not limit their efforts to "get through" to gun play, however, was indicated in reports from Mineola today, which said that three deputy sheriffs were facing grand jury action on charges of complicity in rum running.

DR. MEIKLEJOHN RESIGNS AS PRESIDENT OF AMHERST

Amherst, Mass., June 19.—Dr. Alexander Meiklejohn resigned today as president of Amherst college after he had received formal notice from the trustees that they and a majority of the faculty considered it inadvisable for him to continue as the administrative head of the institution.

In his letter of resignation, Dr. Meiklejohn declined to accept the judgment of the trustees as to the wisdom of the step. He said he was convinced that the situation was such that his withdrawal would be harmful, rather than helpful, but in view of a certain lack of support he felt compelled to sever his connections with the college. He declined the board's invitation that he continue in the chair of logic and metaphysics.

The resignation is to take effect in June, 1924.

DISAPPROVES BIG COLLEGES.

Buffalo, June 19. — By their father's will George W. Pierce, 19, and Daniel C. Pierce, 15, of Hamburg, are excluded from entering any large college. The will of Daniel Pierce, the father, was probated in surrogate's court here today. A provision states: "I have arrived at a definite conclusion that it is by no means a safe place for education to send a son to any of the large colleges and it is my will that my sons be not sent to such a college, believing that there are other means of obtaining an education as good and at the same time safer as to the quality of the man produced."

L. & N. RAISES WAGES

Birmingham, Ala., June 19. — Increase in wages of two cents an hour has been granted nearly all classes of labor in the mechanical departments of the Louisville and Nashville railroad, including 20 shop crafts, it was announced today.

R. G. Evans, assistant superintendent at Birmingham, said the increase would be effective July 1, and had been announced by C. F. Giles, superintendent of the mechanical department with headquarters at Louisville.

London, June 19.—Claiming to be the oldest working miner in Great Britain, Peter Stark has completed 75 years of work at Holytown, Lanarkshire, where he has been employed since he was nine years old. Stark, hale and hearty at 84, still works in the mines.

SHIENTAG STARTS STRIKE INQUIRY

Chamber of Commerce Says Way to Settle Strike Is to Call It Off and Resume Work

Schenectady, June 19. — State investigation of the causes of the railroad strike in this city got under way upon its eighth attempt today, but was adjourned subject to the call of State Industrial Commissioner Bernard L. Shientag after three witnesses had testified.

James F. Hamilton, former president, but now vice president and general manager of the Schenectady Railway company, recounted the company's policy of management, the various boards and officials, their duties and powers and described condition leading up to the strike.

Walter Walker, president, and Michael Ward, business agent, of the striking carmen's union, collaborated Mr. Hamilton's testimony, and presented the strikers' view of conditions on the railway.

Advises Return to Work.

The directors of the Schenectady chamber of commerce today replied to the request of Mayor C. A. Whitmyre for assistance in bringing about a settlement of the strike, by declaring in a letter to the mayor that "the best way to settle this strike is to call it off and for the men to go back to work."

Investigation has shown, the latter said, that working conditions on the railway are good and that wages are reasonable; that the only point of dissention is the company's refusal to recognize the employes' union; and that the company will not recede from its position in this matter. The chamber therefore suggested that the men go back to work and that the strike be officially ended.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR PARADE IN BUFFALO

Two Hour Review Concluded With Massed Formation Presenting Impressive Appearance

Buffalo, June 19.—Four thousand Knights Templars, their plumed helmets splashes of white on a sea of dark and blue and silver, massed from curb to curb today, presented one of [illegible] spectacles in Buffalo's [illegible] commanderies [illegible] conclave of the grand commandery, turned out in formal parade which, with its accompanying maneuvers, required two hours for completion.

Headed by the troop of Scottish bag pipers, the procession got under way at 3 o'clock, the companies, each accompanied by its band, marching singly or under miles of fluttering flags, bunting and templar colors. Two hours later the big command of the knights was countermarching through Buffalo's business district in solid, unwavering white crested ranks, abreast from sidewalk to sidewalk; and led by a massed band of 1,200 musicians.

Overhead in Buffalo's streets the templar emblems were entwined with the flags of the United States and Canada and the spectacle was afforded an international touch by the participation of companies from Niagara Falls and St. Catherine, Ont. A company from Lakewood, O., was the only other unit not representing a New York state city.

FOUR PRIESTS WOUNDED

Pocohantas, Ark., June 19. — Four priests and one lay church official were wounded when unidentified persons fired into the home of Rev. Father Perringer of the Engleberg Catholic church, five miles north of here, last night, according to information received here today. The house was riddled with shot.

Dr. Meiklejohn

Dr. Alexander Meiklejohn, president of Amherst, over whose administrative policy the college faculty and students have had a long bitter fight. Dr. Meiklejohn resigned his position yesterday, to become effective June of next year. He declined the invitation of the board of trustees to continue in the chair of logic and metaphysics.

VOLCANO STILL CASTS DEBRIS ON HILLSIDES

Etna Opens New Craters; Linguaglossa, Thought Out of Danger, Threatened Anew; May Now Be Under Lava

DISCIPLINE NEEDED

Natives Dislike to Leave and Would Remain With Vineyards and Be Destroyed With Them by Lava Streams

(By the Associated Press.)

Catania, Italy, June 19.—The great lava torrent from Mt. Etna bearing in its flood great masses of earth and volcanic stones, is advancing inexorably and already has reached the houses in the outskirts of the town of Linguaglossa. Green fields, orange groves and vineyards have been swallowed up, and for miles around the atmosphere is suffocating with volcanic smoke and a rain of black smoke and ashes which is covering the lovely countryside like a pall.

Several of the smaller houses in Linguaglossa have been shaken down by the frequent earth shocks and the once smiling little town, which until the last it was thought might be spared, is directly in line of the lava and is doubtless doomed to destruction.

The molten stream is traveling about 40 yards an hour, and therefore, unless some miracle happens, Linguaglossa will go under during the night. Confronting it is a lava bed 400 yards wide and nearly 20 feet deep.

Other Streams Diverted.

Smaller torrents of lava, diverted from the central stream, threaten the villages of Randazzo and Bronte, from which so many tourists make the ascent of Etna, Francavilla, Castiglione, Giardini, Fiume and Freddo. The work of clearing the threatened towns is being carried out with the greatest energy and admirable organization. Discipline is necessary to induce the terrified inhabitants to abandon their beloved homes, but their removal is carried out with gentleness and kindness. [illegible] living conditions [illegible] fact that they are being [illegible] Special units of the [illegible] all supplies, have been [illegible] care for the homeless [illegible] provide food and shelter for them.

Six Craters Opened.

A new stream of lava on the western side of Etna menaces the Giarre Junction on the Etna railway. According to leading volcanologists, six new craters have opened, only two of which, however, are of the first importance. In these can be clearly seen the lava in frightful turmoil being ejected in irregular spurts amid vast clouds of fumes and ashes, forming two streams of liquid death, one of which is rolling down on Linguaglossa, the other moving toward Sciaro, but threatening no inhabited points, though causing heavy damage to the vineyards and nut plantations which constitute the wealth of the countryside.

The speed of the latter stream is so slow, however, it is hoped it will not advance far, but rather form a kind of lake in one of the valleys.

Numerous heart rending episodes are being enacted in this theatre around Etna. The affection of the peasants for the homelands renders their evacuation a difficult and delicate task. In one case a woman refused to abandon her vineyard declaring that her whole life had been given over to its cultivation, that its existence was her existence and its death her death. They endeavored to carry her away but she rushed back to the trees and embraced and kissed them singly, calling them her children. When finally she was removed it was found she had lost her reason.

BUELL CLINGS TO STORY OF FIRING AIRPLANE BUILDING

New York, [illegible] — Ernest Buell, German war veteran, ended eight hours on the witness stand this afternoon, still clinging to his story that he had fired the J. L. Larsen Aircraft corporation plant at Central Park, L. I., last February, at the bidding of John L. Larsen, famous airplane inventor and builder, so that Larsen would collect $190,000 insurance.

Heckled and grilled by Larsen's counsel, who declared the defense would unfold a "most amazing conspiracy" to wreck Larsen's reputation, Buell admitted he had received weekly payments from a detective agency employed by the Commercial Union Insurance company, Ltd., which is suing Larsen for recovery of $11,000 paid him on a fire policy, but insisted his story of having been hired by Larsen to fire the plant was true.

INDICTS STEEL OFFICIALS

Steel corporation are said to have been found today by the grand jury which investigated the collapse of the $20,000,000 financial structure of the late Leonard R. Steel. The jury will report on Thursday or Friday. It is understood that the inquiry just closed ends only one phase of the investigation and that further indictments will be sought before the September grand jury.

What is the Best Club to Use When the Ball Lies in the Sand?

Answered by BOB CRUIKSHANK.

The man who, in 1921, defeated Hutchinson, Sarazen, and Barnes in an invitation tournament at St. Joseph, Mo., Runner up in Pittsburgh tournament for professional golfers, 1922, being defeated only by Sarazen.

* * *

If the ball is sunk in the sand, use a niblick because it has a sharp blade and cuts through the sand easily. Tighten the grip as the club head approaches the ball on the down swing.

If the ball lies clean on the sand, an iron jigger should be used, or even a spoon, if the lie and distance warrant. The sand may be slightly scraped by the sole of the clubs or the ball may be hit cleanly. When playing in sand always make sure that the feet are firmly planted. Otherwise, the power of the blow will be lessoned. I always dig my heels into the sand until they are firmly set.

ANOTHER BIG LANDSLIDE

Baseball Proves to Kingston Colonials That Game of Monday Wasn't Fluke; Giants Outhit Visitors 13 to 5—Ferry Has Fine Day—At Unadilla Today.

The Giants took the second game of the two game series from Kingston yesterday, the score being 11 to 2, which evens the series between the clubs at a couple of games each. The affair yesterday was another walkaway for the home club men. McKean held the visitors to five well scattered hits, while the Giants garnered in 13 off Ross, whom they drove off the mound in the third inning, and Culloton, he whom they pounded into oblivion the day previous. Included in this were four doubles and a triple. Ferry, Oneonta right fielder, had a big day, he getting three hits out of three times at bat, five putouts, one an especially fine catch of a fly near the fence, with his back to the ball, and an assist, besides having considerable pleasure at the expense of the Kingston fans in the stands. Alexander hit three times out of four tries. One of these was a double and the other a triple, with Alexander being caught at the plate seeing if the hit carried enough elasticity to permit of its being stretched to cover the four bases.

Like Monday's game, the one yesterday got started in the first round. The visitors obtained one when Deegan was hit by a pitched ball after McHugh was out on an infield play. Foggerty was out, McLean to Alexander, the runner taking third on the play and scoring when Schemerhorn got an infield hit to the left of the second baseman.

Giants Tie Score.

Oneonta promptly tied things in their half. Wilcox grounded, Schemerhorn, unassisted. Ferry got his first hit when he laced the ball across third into left. Watkins failed to find the ball, making two down. Eckstein singled in about the same place Ferry did, sending the first hitter to the third station, Eckstein taking second on the throw. Alexander poled the ball into the corner of the right field fence and the billboard for two sacks, sending in the other runners.

The Colonials tied in the third. Russell, first up, grounded. Schwab hit safely and McHugh flew to left. Deegan hit the ball directly over first bag, which Alexander let go by, thinking it a foul. Schwab scored, but Deegan was caught at third on a close play.

The home club went into the lead with three tallies in the last half of the same round. Ferry was passed. Watkins bunted to the twirler for a sacrifice, but Ross got Ferry at second on a hair-line play, Watkins taking first. Eckstein forced Watkins at second. Alexander was passed, putting men on first and second. Simon hit across third into left for a double, which the fielder juggled, permitting Alexander to follow Eckstein across the pentagon instead of being held at third. Brown was passed by Culloton, who replaced Ross after Simon's double. Sinstack got a bingle into left, scoring Simon.

After that there was nothing to it.

Today the first Unadilla series game is scheduled to take place back of the Unadilla library. The musical program will start at 2 o'clock and the game an hour later.

LACKING THE TIME

There are possibly a few people in the city of Oneonta who knew that, by one of those busy organizations which seem to find pleasure in setting forth occasions for remembrance, last Sunday had been formally designated as Fathers' day. During the past few weeks there had been Mothers' day with its white carnations, and more recently Children's day with abundant blossoms of all kinds, and what with Clean-Up week, and Decoration day and Forest Conservation days and Fire Prevention week and Commencement day, and a few others which do not come at once to memory, albeit they may presently, it is plain to see why there was no special showing on June 17 of the red carnation.

Fathers as a rule probably were not offended because they were not remembered to any great extent on Sunday last; they are generally so busy that unless somebody nudges them they do not readily recall their own birthdays, albeit a man does recall that of his wife; but there is reason for asking as one disgruntled citizen did recently, "Aren't there days enough?"

It is reported of a well-known preacher that when asked if he intended to preach a special sermon on Fathers' day, he replied that he didn't have time. There are so many days now that to prepare a sermon for each of them would leave no time whatever for the general line of religious instruction which somehow preachers and some members of the flock still think a chief duty of the clergy. An occasional "day," like an occasional holiday, is well enough; but when holidays and special days and weeks pile up aggressively, they become irksome.

In fact there are many things which one should do without specialized effort to compel him to do them. Moreover, it easily happens that to fix a special date for the doing and to make it a nation-wide affair, brings with it a sense of duty done, and so a comfortable belief that the rest of the year holds no obligation in that respect. That this is not the case needs but slightest consideration to determine.

No one needs to yield anything to another in the matter of obligation along certain lines. Mothers' day is a notable and entirely commendable occasion which never should be forgotten; but there are also whole years of devotion owing also to her. Clean-Up week is a step toward hygienic conditions and civic beauty, but it is not a single week in April or May, merely, which should be devoted to this work. Decoration day is a noble date whereon as citizens we can honor our dead of all wars, but the sense of devotion and of appreciation should not through the other 364 days of the year lie dormant. Fourth of July commemorates a wonderful national decision; but he who does not look as much forward as backward does not catch the full significance of the celebration. Labor day is alike occasion for recalling what by toil has been accomplished and what mountains are yet to be tunneled, what bridges to be built, what mastery of seas and land and air is yet to be accomplished. Christmas is a day of blessed recollection, and it is also a day which visions all the hopes of all the years.

Going backward in an editorial confessedly discoursive, it may be confidently affirmed that while all the days of commemoration are now most worthy and deserving of consideration, a considerably increased number might be detrimental. It has therefore been suggested that it is time to slow up on anniversaries, and that just before Fathers' day is a good place to break off—short! "Father ain't likely to be forgot," says Av'ry Goodman, "s'long as his pocketbook holds out!"

Universalist Class Holds Picnic.

The annual picnic of the True Blue class of the Chapin Memorial Universalist [illegible] held recently at the Table Rocks. Refreshments were served and the occasion was greatly enjoyed by everyone present.

THE GUIDE POST—
BY HENRY VAN DYKE

QUIET STRENGTH

Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the strength of his might.—Eph. 6:10.

Two modern expressions have been popular in our day: the Strenuous Life, and the Simple Life.

Each of these phrases has its own value. But when they are over-emphasized and driven to extremes they lose their truth and become catch-words of folly.

The simple life which blandly ignores all care and conflict soon becomes flabby and invertebrate, sentimental and gelatinous.

The strenuous life which does everything with set jaws and clenched fists and fierce effort, soon becomes strained and hectic, a [illegible] nervous spasm.

Somewhere between these two extremes must lie the golden mean: a life that has strength and simplicity, courage and calm, power and peace.

But how can we find it?

DAIRYMEN'S LEAGUE NEWS

Allied Farmers Get $1.82 Net Pool Price for May Milk—April Sales Six and a Third Million Dollars.

According to an announcement made by the Dairymen's League Co-operative association today, the net pool price which its member will receive for May milk is $1.82. This is the basic pool price for one hundred pounds of milk testing 3% butter fat at the one-two hundred ten mile zone. The price which individual poolers will receive in each case will vary according to the butter fat and freight differentials.

This price is [illegible]-two cents higher than the pool price for May a year ago. One of the principal reasons for this according to officials of the association is the fact that during recent months a larger proportion of the milk of the association has been marketed in the three higher classifications, that is, as fluid milk, sweet cream, condensed and evaporated milk and ice cream. The League is now receiving the full market prices for its manufactured products as a result of the extensive advertising and sales campaign carried on for the past three months.

During May 96% of the milk which went through the league plants was sold in Classes 1, 2 and 3. It is interesting to compare the figures for May a year ago when the league plants marketed in this higher classifications only [illegible] of the total quantity which they handled during the month.

The association announced the total gross sales for the month of April $6,385,769.10, of which it received for fluid milk sold to dealers $4,666,680.97. The sales from plants operated by the association amounted to $1,719,088.13.

Boys of 11 and 13, charged with inciting above smaller boys to break in. After investigation the court decided that the charge could not be sustained.

Boy of 15, charged with speeding with auto in streets of city. Reprimanded by court and case continued.

Small boys of 7 and 8, charged with taking candy from car. Admitted guilt and will pay for candy taken and also for oranges which they voluntarily confessed having taken. The court gave the lads fatherly advice and placed them under probation for six months.

LITTLE TALKS ON THRIFT

With almost regular frequency one reads in the newspapers of the heavy losses of funds sustained by large numbers of persons who have not been prudent in the administration of their personal affairs.

More and more events emphasize the greater need of thrift education. Our public losses through various fraudulent schemes reach high into the hundreds of millions of dollars each year. These figures do not include losses where the victims have, with open eyes, assumed a reasonable chance of loss. The stupendous sums referred to represent only such losses as are incurred in schemes where the whole plan is nothing better than a swindling process.

While the courts eventually administer punishment to those engaged in these nefarious pursuits the only eventual remedy for the economic malady lies in education.

To begin with there should be a broader ground work of thrift taught in our public and private schools. This is a question that has been discussed by educational bodies for many years. In August, 1915, the National Education Association, while in session in Oakland, Cal., took official action. Since that time this national body of educators has considered the matter of thrift education, and in many parts of the country thrift has been included in the curriculum.

But education in thrift still lacks intensiveness.

Thrift should be encouraged continuously not intermittently. In our schools and Sunday schools, in our churches, theatres, business houses, newspapers and through every other possible medium, interesting and appropriate encouragement in thrift should be given.

Until these things are done, we shall continue to read in the newspapers from time to time of terrible financial losses sustained by those who have not yet learned that money making is a steady, methodical process, which cannot be counterfeited by the waving of a magic wand.

DODGE BROTHERS
TOURING CAR

If there is one word which will sum up the average owner's impression of Dodge Brothers Touring Car, that word is dependable.

If there is a word to express the quality which Dodge Brothers have striven, above all else, to build into the Touring Car, it is —again—dependable.

Indeed, it is not too much to say that the word dependable has come to be definitely associated, the nation over, with Dodge Brothers Touring Car—and the other vehicles bearing their name.

Nor have Dodge Brothers built this enviable reputation through advertising. They have built motor cars, so dependable in fact that the word has presented itself automatically to the public mind.

Any Fool Can Find Fault.

Yes, and we're at it to beat the band. Say, if we will think and use the opportunity that is given us, we won't have to do so much fault finding. If people will easily place small amounts with me monthly, I'll make them grow so darn fast, at six per cent compound interest, that they'll not have to worry and find fault. I have 12 good, able and experienced men who unselfishly do the worrying and it does seem that people would see a hole in a ladder and get wise to my live and let live game, which cuts out fault finding. Mull this over. It's great. I'm the safe and sane Oneonta Building and Loan association. Ad. 1t.

APPROVE BOND ISSUE

CITY COUNCIL VOTES $217,000 TO ACQUIRE WATER WORKS

Bonds in Denominations of $1,000 Each Payable in From One to Ten Years — William Lunn Succeeds J. G. Hoyt on Public Works Board Polling Places Designated.

At the regular meeting of the common council, held last evening in the Municipal building, much business of importance was transacted in a session of little more than an hour long. The most important was doubtless the authorization by the council of the necessary issue of municipal bonds for the acquisition of the property, plant and franchises of the Oneonta Water Works company. The sum required will be $217,000; and the bonds, which will be in sum of $1,000 each, will bear interest not exceeding 4¾ per cent per annum, payable semi-annually on the 15th of June and the 15th of December in each year.

As preliminary to action by the council, a communication from the water commissioners was read, stating that the capital stock of the company had been acquired, the cost thereof, with other necessary expenses, being $508,250. The city will receive $291,250 from the estate of the late George I. Wilber, and there will remain the sum of $217,000, for which bonds will be issued.

Owen C. Becker, Esq., presented the resolution for submission to the board, along with a form of bond which had been submitted to New York attorneys familiar with this work, and which had their approval. The resolution, after reciting necessary antecedent facts, provides that sealed proposals will be received by the city chamberlain on or before June 27, 1923. The maximum rate of interest will be 4¾ per cent, or lower in multiples of one-fourth of one per cent. The bonds themselves, which are of $1,000 denomination, will be payable twenty bonds the first year, 21 the second and 22 each year thereafter until 1933, at which time the entire issue of bonds will have been extinguished. On motion the resolution was duly adopted, all present voting in favor thereof.

Polling Places Fixed.

The mateir of polling places and places of registration for the current year was also brought up and it was decided to have only six polling places—one in each ward—instead of two in each ward, or twelve altogether, as heretofore. This change is made possible throught the installing of voting machines, which render the work of the voter much more rapid. In arranging for voting places it was also planned so far as possible to utilize city buildings, thereby saving expense of rental. The places recommended and adopted were as follows:

First ward—Municipal building.
Second ward — Borst garage, 19 Maple street.
Third ward — Boy Scouts building, Ford avenue.
Fourth ward—Spencer barn.
Fifth ward — Haskins or Kilkenny garage.

In the case of the location in the fifth ward, decision was left in hands of the alderman from that ward, with the understanding that the Haskins garage be secured if possible.

Not an Earthquake.

In the course of the evening a heavy crash, which might have been thought an earthquake, was later announced as the sound of falling plaster, which over a space of ten feet square had fallen from the ceiling of Judge Huntington's temple of justice.

Protesting Rate Per Man.

A communication was received from James Keeton, Jr., protesting the price-per-man plan which the council has adopted for band concerts, and asking that a flat rate per concert be made in each instance, or that the maximum number of men be definitely fixed. The matter was referred to the music committee. It is understood that concerts will begin week after next.

Portrait of First President.

A letter from Dr. Walter B. Ford of the University of Michigan was read, stating that he had caused a portrait of his grandfather, Eliakim R. Ford, first president of the village, to be offered to the city, and asked its acceptance. On motion the gift of Dr. Ford was accepted and the clerk was directed to prepare a letter expressing the thanks of the city council to the donor, the same to be forwarded to him. The letter of gift is as follows:

The Mayor of the City of Oneonta:
Dear Sir:

May I have the honor to present to you the accompanying crayon portrait of Eliakim Reed Ford (1797-1872), pioneer settler and merchant in the village of Oneonta and frequently mentioned in the annals of its early history. If this portrait, which for many years was highly prized by my father, the late Sylvester Ford, is deemed worthy of a place upon the walls of the Municipal building of your present city, it is my desire that such disposition be now made of it. In this manner I have felt that the portrait will not only remain amid the natural surroundings of my grandfather's active life, but will be within a stone's throw of the house, still standing across the way, which was the family home for over forty years.

The bronze tablet which I have had affixed to the frame carries the following inscription

Eliakim Reed Ford
1797-1872
Pioneer settler and merchant.
President in 1848 of the first board of trustees of the village of Oneonta and instrumental in the building of the Albany & Susquehanna railroad.

I am,
Very respectfully yours,
Walter B. Ford.

June 7, 1923.

Resignation and Appointment.

A letter was read from J. G. Hoyt, tendering his resignation as member of the Board of Public Works, to which reference was made in The Star of Tuesday. The resignation of Mr. Hoyt was accepted, the mayor expressing his full appreciation of the services of the retiring commissioner, and his regret for the necessity of this action. To succeed Mr. Hoyt the mayor presented the name of William Lunn as one well fitted for the position and whose appointment, moreover, will be in harmony with the policy of drafting younger men into the public service as occasion arises.

The opinion held by the mayor was unquestionably shared by the [illegible] and the appointment was unanimously confirmed. Other matters of minor importance were considered and the council duly adjourned.

DAYS IN OLD MEXICO

"PEPITA," OPERA OF CHARM AND MELODY, ADMIRABLY PRESENTED BY NORMAL STUDENTS

Thirteenth Annual Commencement Opera Last Evening Fully Up to High Standard of Former Years—Admirable Selection of Principals and Chorus Aids in Success of Production — Hearty Applause Evidences Approval of Large Audience.

Thirteen may be an unlucky number but if the fact that "Pepita," presented in the Normal auditorium last evening by students of the school, was the thirteenth in the list of annual commencement operas has any significance of ill omen those who witnessed the production are from the famed state beyond the Father of Waters and must be shown. Each year it is said that the opera is the "best ever." Upon this occasion we repeat the statement and without hesitancy or shame. The opera, or rather operetta, is a dainty combination of mirth and melody, pleasing in plot and affording an opportunity for the display of both singing and acting ability. Every part was admirably taken last evening and the result was a production of which everyone who was in any way concerned may feel justly proud.

The operetta, written by Philip A. Hutchins and Augustus C. Knight, has its scenes laid in Old Mexico. The illusion of action in that land of romance was heightened by the elaborate and colorful costumes. Pedro, an inn-keeper of excellent intent but dubious methods, is at a loss how to pay to Carlos, a dashing outlaw, the rent which is due him. He attempts to beguile Carlos by playing the hand of his lovely daughter, Felipa. Carlos, loving Pepita, fairest maiden in the land, will have none of Felipa, who is equally opposed to the match. At this juncture of affairs enter Henry Hepworth, an American millionaire, his sister, Jane, a lady not too young, and his valet, Wilson. A plot ensues between Carlos and Pedro to kidnap Jane and demand a ransom. This is done and the spinster is secreted in the cave of Romero, a smuggler.

Romero is intrigued with Jane, who has previously rejected the weird matrimonial offer of Wilson, and the smuggler pays her ransom with his love. The plot now hastens to a happy ending. Felipa and Hepworth fall in love, and Pedro, upon consideration, consents to the marriage. Hepworth decides to settle in the locality and brings it about that Romero is made governor of the state. Pepita and Carlos plight their troth and the opera ends in strictly conventional style.

As Pedro Miss VanDerwerken was happily casted. The part is difficult and calls for no small amount of histronic ability but Miss VanDerwerken was fully equal to the occasion and gave a rendition of the part that could not be excelled. Her Ghost song was especially pleasing. As Felipa, Miss Thayer was as pretty and vivacious a Mexican lass as one could wish. Her solos were admirably rendered and her work in duet and quartet was [illegible] Carlos, the outlaw, was handsomely impersonated by Miss DeProsse. No more dashing or gallant a person could be imagined nor one who could make love in more romantic a manner. Her musical numbers, especially her Serenade and the love duet between herself and Pepita, Miss Virginia Morris, were among the best of the evening.

Miss Virginia Morris as Pepita was all that could be desired. Her fine voice was never heard to better advantage than in her solos last evening and her acting would have distinguished many a professional. Miss Lamb as Henry Hepworth was a star of the first magnitude. Her impersonation of that interesting character was ideal and her singing was excellent. In the solo, "The Yankee Millionaire" she was heard to fine advantage. Miss Camen, as Jane Hepworth, the spinster sister, had a difficult role which she played in a very meritorious manner. Her discursion upon romance was delivered in very pleasing voice. Wilson, the valet, played by Miss Nickeson, was one of the hits of the production. Her lines and action were for the most part humorous and were admirably done and provoked frequent applause. In her talking song concerning her inability to foresee events she brought in a little local color which was especially pleasing. Miss Worden, as Romero, the smuggler, did ample justice to her part, both in solo work and in acting.

The work of the Mexican lads and maids, whose names appeared in The Star of Tuesday, was very pleasing. They provided a background of choral effort that was indispensable. If every operetta could have such a chorus the ideal of the art would be very near attainment. Especially mention should be made of the Mexican dancers, the Misses Anice Kilkenny, Ethel Kilkenny, Alice G. Ulrich and Alma H. Walser. Their number was a Mexican dance of the kind that can really be seen in that country and was admirably done.

It is regretted that more attention cannot be given to the various musical numbers and situations of plot. The selections were tuneful to a high degree and excellent examples of the type of music peculiar to Latin countries. There were many incidents of action that would stand considerable elaboration were it possible so to do.

To Miss Greene, who was presented with a corsage of roses by the cast, goes, perhaps, greatest credit for the success of the opera. Her hours with the players were numerous and filled with painstaking effort but she will have the satisfaction of knowing that her work was not in vain and that the students were a credit to her instruction. Credit is also due to the directors of costumes, Miss [illegible] and Miss Jenkins, the directors of stage, Miss Posthill and Mr. Curtis, the director of the dance, Miss Love, the accompanist, Miss Rossman, the director of orchestra, Mr. Canning and to Thomas H. Dickson, who superintended the makeups.

The opera was witnessed by a good sized crowd. That all enjoyed the production was evidenced by the frequent applause. Not a single musical number was allowed to go without an encore.

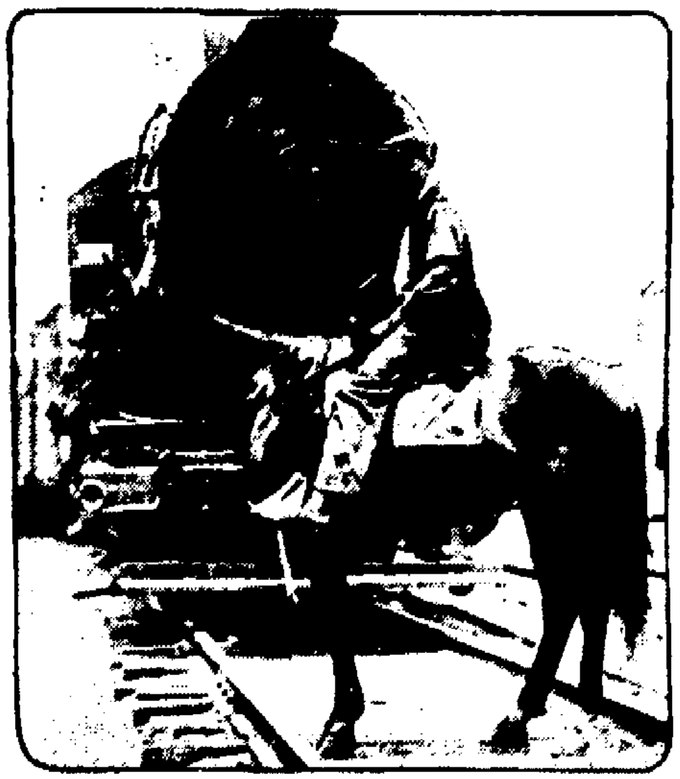
New York Is Still Very Archaic!



With all her modernism, New York still clings to century-old methods—such as mounted flagmen, known as "dummy boys." Here's a "dummy boy" halting a train on Tenth avenue, which still has surface railroad tracks; these boys ride up and down the avenue warning autoists and truckmen, and when it's necessary to stop a train they station themselves in the middle of the track.

Came Home to Die

"Three years ago [illegible] 2 or 3 weeks would be my limit to live. I had suffered for 15 years from colic attacks and severe stomach trouble. I am now in the best of health—thanks to Mayr's Wonderful Remedy." It removes the catarrhal mucous from the intestinal tract, and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. Members of that association have been given a preference and tickets were sent to them some time ago. THE HUNTINGTON LIBRARY.

Suggestions of Interest to Patrons and Friends.

Borrowers wishing to take out library books for use in their vacations will be given special privileges both in the number of books loaned and the time of loan allowed.

This plan was tried last year and gave such satisfaction that it is hoped even more of our readers will avail themselves of the privilege this season.

Members of the Travel class of the Woman's club will find material on Africa, the subject of next season's study, reserved for them in the alcove at the rear of the general loan room. As Africa is a live subject of present general interest, books are constantly being added to the already quite large collection on the shelves.

High school students may use their "lists for English" at the library for reading this summer, and get credit for the work done in the next school year. They should ask at the library desk for a "Card for English Readings," which will be supplied them for keeping their record of titles; each record will be signed at the desk when the book is returned.

BETTER TONE, BUT MARKET IS SPOTTY

Indications of Frightened and Forced Liquidation and Short Selling

Brief Market Summary.

Day's total sales 1,066,300 shares.
Twenty industrials averaged 92.76; net gain, .12.
High, 1923, 105.38; low, 92.64.
Twenty railroads averaged 81.74; net loss, .40.
High, 1923, 90.63; low, 80.13.

New York, June 19. — Stock prices displayed a better tone in today's active dealings on the New York stock exchange but there were indications of frightened and forced liquidations and short selling throughout the day which gave the market a spotty appearance. Several of the leaders tumbled to new low records before sufficient buying support set in to stem the tide of selling orders.

Official denial of the widespread rumors that several brokerage houses were in financial difficulties, did much to dispel the pessimistic tone that was so prevalent in yesterday's late dealings. Speculators for the decline made repeated assaults on the buying lists, but in many instances they encountered substantial buying orders placed on the belief that the recent reaction had been over done and that technical conditions warranted a rally.

Oils were rather unstable because of unfavorable trade conditions, the Pan-American issues, Texas Company, California Petroleum, Producers and Refiners, General Asphalt and a number of others falling to new low prices for the year.

U. S. Steel touched another new low at 92¼, and then rallied to 92½, up one-fourth. Gulf States and Replogle Steels, Consolidated Gas, Cerro de Pasco and Kennecott Coppers, International Paper, Baldwin, U. S. Industrial Alcohol, and Central Leather were among the more than three score other stocks that sold at new minimum prices for the year, but all rallied before the close.

Rails held up well in the first few hours of trading but they gave way in the afternoon reaction and many of them closed at net losses on the day. Chesapeake and Ohio, Lackawanna, Illinois Central, New Orleans, Texas and Mexico, and Norfolk and Southern dropped back one to three points.

Recessions ranging from large fractions to more than a point were general in the trading in bonds today. Prices, however, held fairly steady in the U. S. government group.

Railroad mortgages were offered freely, losses of a point or more being registered for Erie general 4s, Kansas City Southern 5s and Denver and Rio Grande refunding 5s. Tractions slumped also, New York Railway refunding 4s, certificates, and Interborough Rapid Transit 7s each declined one.

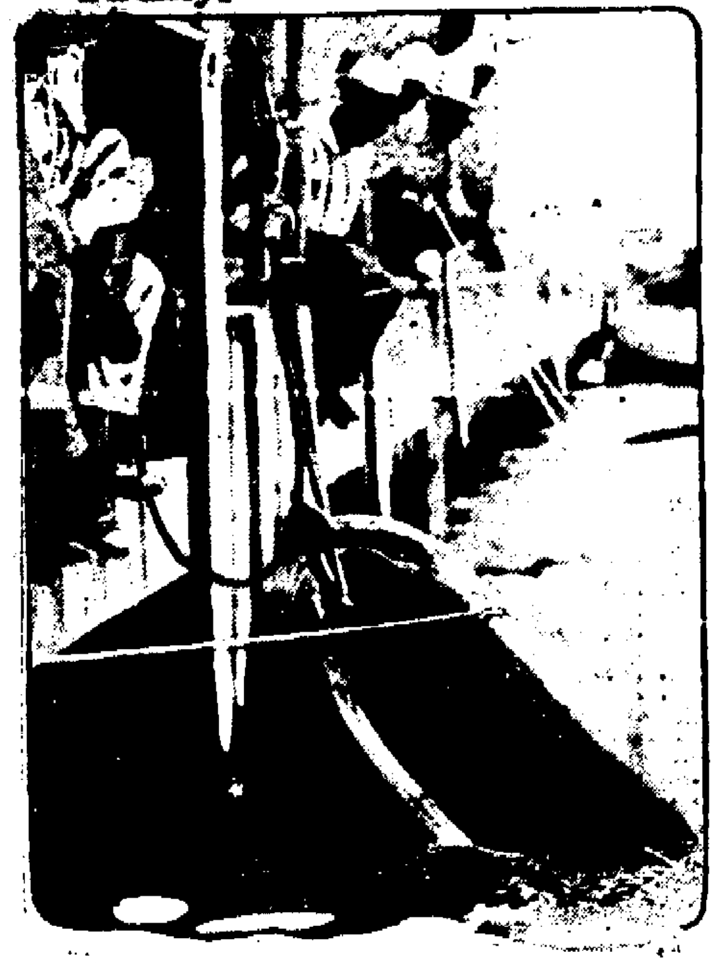
Twenty Tons of Sea Monster



After this 40,000-pound sea monster was harpooned off Long Key, Fla., it put up a 12-hour fight that ended only when 50 bullets from a high-power rifle were fired into it. It is 35 feet long, 23 feet in girth, with a tail span of 12 feet. Naturalists say it belongs to a rare family, part whale and part shark, called the "Indo-Pacific basking shark." An idea of its gigantic size may be had from this view of its mouth, only partly open.

Stability-Safety

Students of finance and economics are optimistic as to the future, and prophesy a growth in business enterprises.

The Directors of the Wilber National Bank in anticipation of this, have transferred to the Surplus from Undivided Profits, the sum of $200,000.

The Surplus now amounts to one half million dollars.

The Directors had the right to divert the above transfer to the benefit of the stockholders in additional dividends, but took the action they did, so as to strengthen the stability and safety of the bank.

The protection given by the large Capital and Surplus makes for security of deposits.

Then, too, the bank will be able to give larger financial aid to customers for legitimate enterprises.

We are here to serve and shall be glad to confer with you on loans or investments or to the rental of a Safety Box for the safe-keeping of your securities.

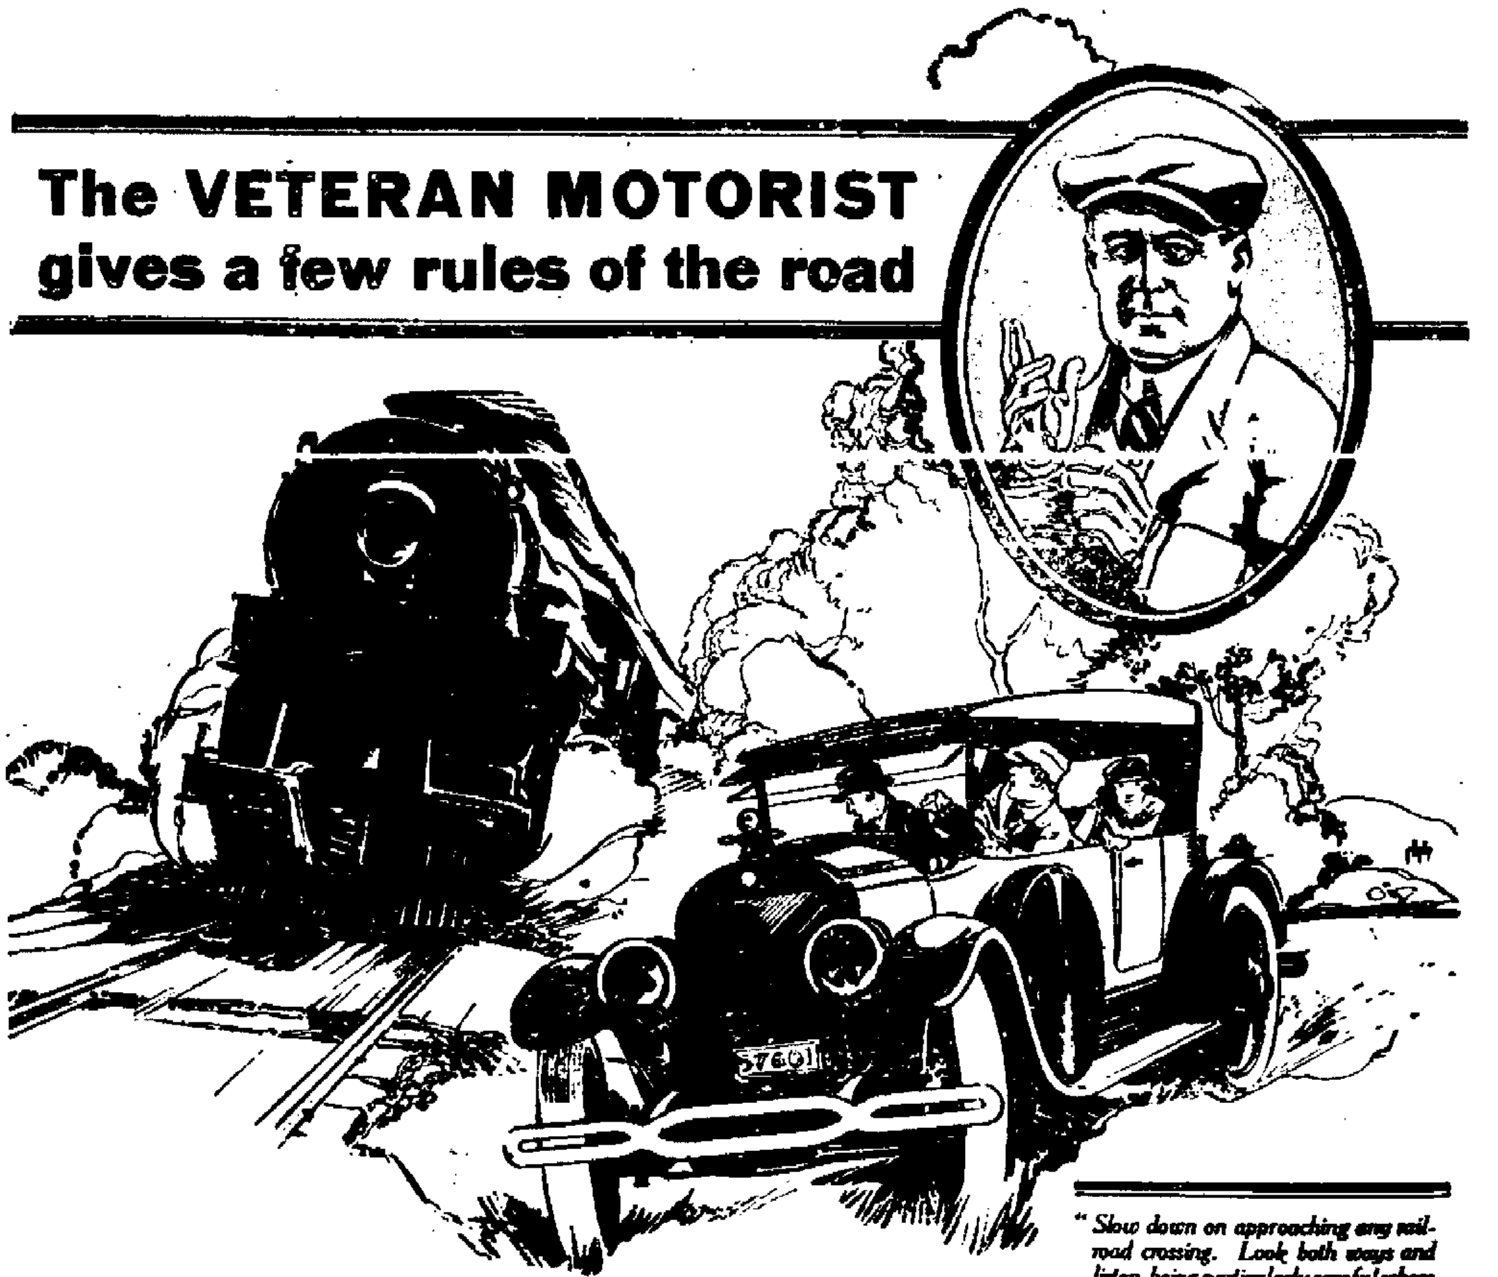
The VETERAN MOTORIST gives a few rules of the road



"Slow down on approaching any railroad crossing. Look both ways and listen, being particularly careful where there are two or more tracks, because of trains in opposite direction."
(Am. Railway Ass. Safety Section)

"WHY IS IT, I WONDER, that you still read about so many automobile accidents at railroad crossings? With the thousands of smashed cars and undertakers' bills caused this way, you'd suppose that every motorist would put on the old thinking cap when he spots a crossing.

"I saw a smash once, and that was enough for me. No more taking chances for Yours Truly after that, or 'hoping' there isn't a train coming. You can't absolutely trust anything but your own eyes to tell you whether the track is clear or not. The flagman may not be on duty when you happen along. The automatic signal may be out of order. The train may be coasting quietly down a grade toward the crossing. There are a dozen 'mays', and 'may nots', and 'ifs'.

"No siree! Life's too short and sweet to take blind chances at grade crossings—when it's so simple and easy to make sure. My tip is: always assume there is a train coming. It is better to be wrong than to have your picture in next day's paper—"Victim of Auto Wreck."
